Paul B. Johnson, Jr., was defeated in his third consecutive attempt to gain the Governor's chair in the State of Mississippi.

The Gulf Coast and Hancock County have been a Johnson stronghold for the past three campaigns.

Johnson led Judge Coleman by a majority of over a thousand votes with a total of 3368.

In a rather close race, locally speaking, Robert E. (Bob) Graham carried Hancock County in the State Land Commissioners race over Walter L. McGahey, who was seeking re-election to that office.

Graham, who also held a lead over the entire state, received 2716 votes to 2526 for McGahey.

Mrs. Thomas L. Bailey, the widow of former Governor of the State, the late Thomas L. Bailey was re-elected to the office of State Tax Collector.

In Hancock County, Mrs. Bailey beat her opponent, Howard Little, former Public Service Commissioner from the Northern District, 3447 to 1855.

W. E. (Bucky) Moore is past giant of the Tulane Green Wave of years gone by, proved he could still run by defeating incumbent I. S. (Ike) Sanford for Public Service Commissioner in the Southern District.

Moore carried Hancock County by a vote of 3236 to 2318.

The Management and Employees of Coast Electric Power Association having achieved the goal of 50,000 consecutive man-hours without a lost-time accident, are the recipients of the Rural Electric Cooperative Safety Award presented by the Safety Engineering Department of Employees Mutual Liability Insurance Company of Wisconsin.

Presentation of this award was made by Mr. Bill Maxey, Engineer of Employees Mutuals, at a steak dinner given by Coast Electric on Thursday evening, October 18, in recognition of this achievement of its employees and honoring guests of the occasion.

Present and representing Mutuals were Messrs. E. E. Williamson, Resident Manager, Jackson, Miss.; Carl Langhorst, Asst. Supervising Engineer, Dallas, Texas; Bill Maxey, who is a new Engineer recently transferred to Jackson; and Gene Love, Claim Agent for this area.

In well chosen words the representatives of the Insurance Company complimented both Management and Employees of the Association for their excellent record and achievement. Expressions of praise were also voiced by Mr. Black, Mr. Stovall and Mr. Curat. Officer Kenny was lavish in his praise of the Coast Electric personnel for their cooperation with the State Highway Patrol, and their contribution toward keeping the highways safe. He called attention to the safety possibilities of the system of both the Association and the Highway Patrol through which arrangements for joint communications had been set up in a cooperative effort to take care of any emergency. He expressed appreciation for every courtesy shown the State Highway Patrol, and on behalf of the Highway Patrol offered fullest cooperation at all times in the interest of public safety.

Mr. Shattuck expressed appreciation for all tributes accorded Coast Electric personnel on this occasion and expressed great pride in the accomplishment achieved through the cooperation of all employees, together with the excellent instruction received through the Safety and Job Training Program. However, this is only the first hurdle, he said. "Extra special awards for higher goals of man hour periods without a lost time accident are being offered by Employers Mutuals, and Coast Electric expects to make every effort to attain these goals."

Both Mr. J. W. Watts, Jr., Operations Supt. and Mr. E. H. Stovall, Safety Engineer, expressed and offered their full support in future work and further accomplishments.

The evening was one of full entertainment and delicious refreshments, capably handled by Mr. R. A. Seivique at his Star Route Farm. The occasion, marking a milestone in accomplishment was highly enjoyable for those present and deeply gratifying to all who are a part of Coast Electric.

A Note On Savings Bonds

In times like these, when nearly everyone has a job and a car and an electric refrigerator and a television set, when wages are going up and the future looks rosier than it has looked in a generation, some of us are likely to get into the "easy come, easy go" frame of mind.

It is a joyous frame of mind but hardly a prudent one. It is true the country is prosperous. It is true that most of us will manage somehow to pay off the debts we have accumulated during these days of easy credit.

But - there is always a but. In the old days, there used to be a saying, "Keep something in the sock." In more genteel circles, the term was "Lay something aside for a rainy day." However you decide to say it, it is good advice.

The best sock of all is a United States Savings Bond. Of course, it is patriotic to buy savings bonds. Everybody knows that. Savings bonds are a brake on inflation. They help to keep the value of money stable. They don't hold out the hope of glittering rewards, like some of the common stocks we have heard of. They aren't for gamblers who are looking for a lot of fast bucks. Rather, they are for a man who is thinking about his wife and his family and the uncertainties of the future.

Savings bonds are a hedge against most foreseeable hardships. If, we all hope, the economy of the country remains stable, they sit there in your desk or in your safe deposit box, piling up compound interest for years to come. If, because of unwise economic policies, there should come a recession or even a depression, the savings bonds will be the salvation of the man who owned them. Stocks go down at such times, even real property, like farms and houses, declines in value because few have the money to buy it. But savings bonds stand firm, gathering their interest every year. If the value of the things goes down, the buying power of Government bonds goes up. Ask Dad, he knows.

And, if Dad is wise, he knows that when the time comes for the children to go away to school or college, it is pleasant to go to the bank and cash a few savings bonds to pay for them. He knows that if ill-fortune strikes - say, a big hospital bill, or an accident - it is a great comfort to know that the bonds are there in the sock if you like.

No Swimming Pools

In the recently held bond issue election in the City of Bay St. Louis the majority of the people voted against constructing two swimming pools, one for the colored residents and one for the white residents.

They must have had a reason for doing so. Probably they felt these items were not necessary because of the large Gulf we have on our beach front.

But did the people really dig down into the depth of this bond issue and find it's worthwhile value?

Did they try to measure the benefits that the colored people of our community would have derived from such a project? Did they think about the advantages it would have afforded the youngsters of both races? The advantage of organized and supervised recreation, where all children could learn to swim without any fear of accidents.

Where will our colored people swim? Do you know? But you voted and expressed your wishes, and those wishes will be carried out.

There will be no swimming pools for Bay St. Louis.

SILAGE

Put up your silage on time. Don't wait until it is over mature. Sorghum is ready to be ensiled when the seed are in the heavy dough stage.

Corn should be cut and ensiled when the grain is well denting. Waiting until the corn is dry before putting it up lowers the value of the silage as feed. Too, it causes excess work as the silage must be watered.

CORN STOVER

Many farmers are going to save their good corn as stover. It has high feed value as the cattle make use of the stalk and leaves it will as the grain.

For stover, the corn should

Cattle Feeders Day To Be At State College

A Cattle Feeders Day will be held September 1 at Mississippi State College, beginning at 10 a. m. in the Animal Husbandry Service Building.

How to feed cattle for greater profit will be stressed.

The event is sponsored by the Mississippi Experiment Station, Mississippi Extension Service and the Mississippi Cattlemen's Association. Supervising the arrangements are Paul F. Newell, Extension animal husbandman, and Charles E. Lindley, head of the college's animal husbandry department.

Cattlemen in several areas of the state are giving more attention now to the need of supplementing the cow-calf business with some steer feeding when ever this activity fits into their program. Mr. Newell declared.

"By diversifying the cattle business, beef producers tend to improve the chances of increasing income."

A panel discussion of cattle feeding will be featured during the morning session. The moderator will be William E. Drenner, vice-president and manager, Livestock Department, First National Bank of Memphis.

The panel members will be Dave Crighton, cattle manager, King and Anderson Plantation; Clarkdale, Ethan Porter, cattle producer, Darden Plantations, Pattison; Don Brink, commercial cattle feeder, Fuller, and Bob Morford, cattle buyer, Wilson and Company, Memphis.

Swift's Centennial Awards for Mississippi will be presented at the end of the morning session by K. M. Coppenhour, manager, Swift and Company plant, Jackson. Receiving these awards will be C. S. Whittington of Greenwood, "Outstanding Cattleman of the Year"; and Waldemar L. Frichard of Iverness, "Outstanding Sheep Producer of the Year."

A review of current livestock research by Experiment Station workers will be presented in the afternoon. This will include "The Use of Urea in Beef Cattle Feeding" by Ben F. Barrentine, "The Use of Silbesterol in Beef Cattle Feeding" by J. P. Fortenot, and "Reproductive Disturbances - Their Causes and Treatments" by L. C. Uihberg.

A tour of Experiment Station feed lots, with discussion of the various lots of steers on feed, will conclude the program.

Dorris L. Ballew of Natchez president, Mississippi Cattlemen's Association, will preside in the morning. H. H. Leveck, associate director, Mississippi Experiment Station, will preside in the afternoon.

Groups of cattlemen planning to attend the Feeders Day are organized in several counties by county agents and officers of the Mississippi Cattlemen's Association.

Talmage To Deliver Keynote Address In Jackson, November 10th

Herman Talmage, former governor of Georgia, has accepted an invitation to deliver the keynote address at the statewide national affairs forum to be held in Jackson on November 10th, undersponsorship of the Mississippi Economic Council.

Oscar O. Wolfe, Jr., of Duncan, chairman of the Council's national affairs forum committee, said the colorful former governor will speak just prior to the forum, and then will sit on the panel with Mississippi's congressional delegation to answer questions on national problems and issues posed by the audience.

The forum on November 10 will be the fifth such event sponsored by the MEC to bring about a better understanding of national affairs by citizens of the state. All former forums have attracted record crowds.

"We are confident Governor Talmage will give an interesting and informative keynote speech at the forum," Mr. Wolfe said. "He is known for his love for the South and its traditions, and is a staunch supporter of Southern ideals. He is also noted for his quick wit and humor. Mississippians will enjoy a real treat when they hear him."

"But the real stars of the forum, of course, are our own two senators and six congressmen, who have attended the forums year after year to give citizens a first hand report on what takes place in Washington. They are to be commended for their fine cooperation in this effort.

Mr. Wolfe said other details of the forum will be announced later. Members of his committee are: Robert Dale Prentiss; Frank Iler, Tupelo; A. B. Marchant, Natchez; Hal Soule, Meridian; and J. T. Thomas, Cruger.

Conwell Sykes, Greenville banker, is chairman of the Council, under which the forum committee operates.

TO THE PEOPLE OF HANCOCK COUNTY

I wish to take this opportunity to thank the people of Hancock County for the splendid vote given me in the Second Democratic Primary Election.

I hold no malice toward those who voted for my worthy opponent and want the people to know that my efforts will be centered for the good of all.

Also, I will be glad to aid them in any way possible in the future.

Sincerely, L. C. LADNER.
